

MIAMI

MODERN LUXURY™

ARTS & POWER ISSUE

MEET MIAMI'S CULTURE BARONS
THE ULTIMATE BASEL CHEAT SHEET!
MIAMI ARCHITECTURE GOES GLOBAL
LOCAL ARTISTS ON THE VERGE

+PLUS

JAMIE FOXX'S HOLLYWOOD TAKEOVER
CUSTOM COUTURE HITS THE GABLES
THE PERFECT NYC GETAWAY
INSIDE THE NEW WYNWOOD
& ALL THE BEST PARTIES!

ART BASEL BLOWOUT!

MIAMI 3930 NE 2ND AVE. SUITE 201 MIAMI FL 33137

DECEMBER 2008 $5.95

Photo Sharing

For designer Tomas Maier, swapping his SoBe store for one in the booming Design District wasn't merely a matter of moving merchandise. In addition to bringing his brand of jet set chic, including an exclusive look at his cruise '09 collection prior to its worldwide delivery, Maier tapped into the neighborhood spirit by incorporating a 1,000-square-foot gallery into the store. Located on the shop's second level, the gallery will exhibit works of contemporary photography. For the gallery's first show, which will premiere during Art Basel Miami Beach, the German-born, Paris based Maier has selected the work of French photographer Karine Laval. Here's a sneak preview. Tomas Maier, 170 N.E. 40th St., Miami, karinelaval.com. —Melissa Cantor

[SHOP TALK]

Karine Laval's
Untitled #14,
Annecy, France, 2003.