

Underwear that looks good, feels fabulous and actually fits is the holy grail for any woman. Spoylt lingerie is spot-on: this luxury line is made using hand-dyed fabrics that are crafted to suit your curves, however big or small. From £60 (spoylt.com)

Follow the lido

The new exhibition by the photographer Karine Laval, documenting a series of outdoor swimming pools around Europe, should feel very apt as the weather hots up. The bleached whiteness and azure blues are so vivid they'll have you longing for summer. At the Crane Kalman Gallery in Brighton (cranekalmanbrighton.com)

Cheap trick

This Peacocks dress is a real find. Made from good-quality cotton and with a fab fit, it's a steal at just £16. For stockists, call 0115-965 8800

Closet read

My Mother's Wedding Dress by Justine Picardie, our very own Closet Thinker, is a touching narrative of the memories spun from clothes and the importance they have to a woman's personal history. Out in paperback this week (Picador, £7.99)

The textile designer Clare Nicolson uses digitally printed cottons and silks to create a super-sweet range of interiors accessories. Her vintage lavender-filled birds – from £6 – smell gorgeous and make great gifts. See www.clarenicolson.com

